Safeguarding

Learners

Section 10 of the 2004 Children Act places a Statutory Duty of Care on all providers of Service to Children and Young People. Burton Borough School and Specialist Arts College places the safety and care of its learners at the heart of planning and delivery of all of its activities.

The Lunch Time Team is welcomes the opportunity to be part of school's guarantee to provide a safe learning and social environment for its learners, workforce and the wider community and to work within the spirit of our "Respect for All" policy

In Our Team We

Share all relevant information

Are specific and clear with each other, our colleagues, learners and parents

Explain the reasons behind our actions and discuss difficult issues

Work together to design ways to test disagreements and solutions

Keep our discussions focussed

Share confidential information on a "need to know" basis that reinforces the dignity of all concerned

Remember all members are expected to participate We make decisions by consensus wherever possible, and accept the Team Leader's role to decide on a course of action

"We accept that, from time-to-time, difficulties will occur: however we are agreed that the way we work together, how we are perceived as a team and how we develop our skills and approaches is an essential part of delivering a high quality service to our community."
