Dear Parents

Re: Forthcoming GCSE exams

I am writing to you to confirm the arrangements for this year's GCSE exams.

All students will attend school full-time until Friday 28 May. There will be a leavers assembly on that day. After half term, from Monday 7 June, students are expected to attend for exams and lessons for those subjects in which they still have exams to complete. There will be supervised Study Rooms where students can go to revise when they have no exam, or are in between exams, or transport difficulties mean they need to stay at school. We expect students to spend the time when they are not in school revising at home.

Our Y11 students are expected to respond in their usual sensible and mature way! We do not want students wandering around school or Newport when they should be focused on revision. We will be as clear as possible in our explanation to them of the procedures and expectations. I would be grateful for your support in ensuring your son / daughter is well-organised and that you discuss his / her timetable and routines over the exam period. It is stressful enough without being late or missing exams, or being unreliable in responding to these arrangements.

Many thanks for your help and cooperation and I'd like to take this opportunity to wish your son / daughter every success in their exams.

Yours sincerely

G. Tomlinson
